COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this class you will be a member of a multimedia content gathering, editing, design and programming team that will explore Venezuelan immigration into Colombia. We will travel to Medellin over spring break to produce multimedia content. Our project must appeal to a range of potential target audiences, with a premium on producing story packages that reach into the hearts and minds of the audience, opens them up to the connectedness of humankind and pushes them to see, feel and connect with these people a half a world away. We will also work as a team build the project's reach through legacy media, social media, education, and audience participation.

During the course you will work on the video/reporting team but will also be engaged in other parts of the project under the direction of a team of multimedia producers. There will be three primary teams, Video/Photo, Design/Dev and Reporting. Professor Tamara Rice will lead the Design/Dev team. Kate Sheppard will lead the Reporting team.

General topics will include:

- Traveling and working internationally
- Researching to understand the culture and our story topics to strengthen the storytelling
- Working with a team of journalists to create a multidimensional web experience
- Video storytelling
- Collaborating with an organization
- Focusing on audience

SCHEDULE:

Video Team

Pre Production Phase - January 11-March 8:

Pre-production will include research, story and sidebar budget, story development and access, and video storytelling skill development through shooting/editing a local story in a story team.

Production Phase - March 10-20:

Content gathering will include shooting, translating, and editing video, shooting stills, time lapses, drone footage, and reporting and content gathering for text, graphics, interactives and design.

Post Production Phase - March 20-April 28:

Final production will include finalizing all content edits and presentation, implementing final site design, uploading all content, promoting the project, and planning/conducting a public screening. This will require much out-of-class work time, so be prepared to spend as much time as it takes to make this the best project possible. Also, this is a time in which you really need to be a team player and participate in all facets of production. We will have 3-5 organized 6-7 hour editing sessions in the evening during post-production.

FINAL EXAM

The final project will count instead of a final exam, but the class will meet for a major screening and project launch in late April.

GRADING & EXPECTATIONS

We will function as a multimedia team, and as such your grade will be based on the work you produce for the project and how you function as a member of the team. Each team member will have assignments based on their specialty, but you will also be expected to help the team in a variety of ways that may change based on the dynamic nature of the project. Managing your time, meeting deadlines, following directions and proactively volunteering to help or lead in whatever ways possible will be important, especially in the final production phase. All of your assignments must meet the following standards to be considered for a grade of “B” or better.

The project must be:

- completed according to the assignment specifications
- completed on time
- free of typographical, grammatical and mechanical errors
- display a clear grasp of documentary video storytelling standards and design concepts

When appropriate your multimedia work also will be evaluated for:

- consumer value
- storytelling quality
- creativity and innovation

Pre-Production (research, pre-production video exercises, deadlines) 30%

Final Projects (final video docs, stills and deliverables) 50%

Participation (effort, teamwork, project promotion, proactivity) 20%

COURSE MATERIALS

You will need a cell phone that works in Colombia and the appropriate sim card/minutes. More info soon.

You will need your own hard drive and flash drive

You will need video compatible compact flash or SD cards, recommended two 32GB or larger, and the appropriate card reader.

You can check out most of your camera gear from the school, but may need you to use appropriate/specialty gear of your own, such as lenses, camera bodies, audio recorders and mics, drones, osmo, etc.

ATTENDANCE AND ASSIGNMENTS

Attendance is required, participation is expected and deadlines are absolute. To succeed in this class you must attend and participate in all activities. We will be working as a team and as such will depend on each member to carry their share of the workload. Attendance will be recorded and will be taken into account for your grade. You are allowed one un-excused absence. Any other missed class assignments will receive a zero grade. LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED unless special arrangements are made prior to the due date. Deadlines are vital to success in this industry and you are expected to make deadline.

HONOR CODE AND PLAGIARISM

It is expected that each student in this course will conduct himself or herself within the guidelines of the UNC honor code. All academic work should be done with the high level of honesty and integrity this university demands. You are expected to produce your own work in this class. If you have any questions about your responsibility or your instructor's responsibility as a faculty member under the Honor Code, please talk with me or Senior Associate Dean Charlie Tuggle, or you may speak with a representative of the Student Attorney Office or the Office of the Dean of Students.

ACCREDITATION

The School of Journalism and Mass Communication's accrediting body outlines a number of values you should be aware of and competencies you should be able to demonstrate by the time you graduate from our program.

Learn more about them here:

<http://www2.ku.edu/~acejmc/PROGRAM/PRINCIPLES.SHTML#vals&comps>

No single course could possibly give you all of these values and competencies; but collectively, our classes are designed to build your abilities in each of these areas. In this class, we will address a number of the values and competencies, with special emphasis on "Professional values and competencies" listed below.

- Understand concepts and apply theories in the use and presentation of images and information
- Demonstrate an understanding of professional ethical principles and work ethically in pursuit of truth, accuracy, fairness and diversity;
- Think critically, creatively and independently
- Apply tools and technologies appropriate for the communications professions in which they work.

SEEKING HELP

If you need individual assistance, it's your responsibility to contact me. If you are serious about wanting to improve your performance in the course, the time to seek help is as soon as you are aware of the problem – whether the problem is difficulty with course material, a disability, or an illness.⁵⁹

DIVERSITY

The University's policy on Prohibiting Harassment and Discrimination is outlined in the 2011-2012 Undergraduate Bulletin <http://www.unc.edu/ugradbulletin/>. UNC is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our community and does not discriminate in offering access to its educational programs and activities on the basis of age, gender, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.
